SOCIAL SECURITY CASE CONSENT FORM

Pursuant to the Court’s January 6, 2023 General Order 23-1, this social security appeal has been assigned to a United States Magistrate Judge. If all parties consent, a Magistrate Judge will conduct all proceedings in the case, including the entry of final judgment and the determination of any post-judgement matters, and any appeal from the Magistrate Judge’s order and judgment would be directly to the Court of Appeals for the Tenth Circuit. If one or more parties decline to consent to the disposition of the case by a Magistrate Judge, the case will be randomly assigned to a District Judge for further proceedings. No adverse consequences will result from a party’s decision to not consent to disposition by a Magistrate Judge.

Indicate below, by checking one of the boxes, whether you do or do not consent to disposition of this case by a Magistrate Judge.

- Consent to disposition by a Magistrate Judge
- Do not consent to disposition by a Magistrate Judge

Pursuant to General Order 23-1, you must complete and submit this form no later than _____ to social_security_consent@okwd.uscourts.gov. Do not file this form in the case.
