

- b. Have you traveled outside the State of Oklahoma or outside the United States in the last 14 days, specifically including China, Italy, South Korea, or Iran? If so, where (country, city, state)?
 - c. Have you been in contact with anyone who has traveled outside the State of Oklahoma or outside the United States in the last 14 days? If so, where did that person travel (country, city, state)?
 - d. In the last 14 days, have you been in contact with anyone who has been exposed to COVID-19 or anyone with flu-like symptoms?
3. Screening shall also include determining whether the person has a fever, which is defined for screening purposes as a temperature greater than or equal to 100.4 degrees Fahrenheit. That determination shall be made by the least invasive means possible.
4. If a person responds yes to or refuses to answer any of the screening questions and/or has a fever, the USMS shall isolate that person and require that they wear a protective mask. The person will be considered to be presumptively contagious.²
5. The USMS is directed to return all presumptively contagious persons to the detention facility from which they came for further screening and treatment, as appropriate, and to immediately notify the presiding Judge and the Clerk of Court that a presumptively contagious person has been returned to a detention facility. Further, the USMS shall provide the involved detention facility with the identities of any detained persons who were initially transported with a presumptively contagious person to allow for observation and potential further screening of such persons according to the policies of the involved detention facility.

6. If the presumptively contagious person was transported to the Courthouse for a pretrial proceeding, such proceeding will be continued for 14 days.³ If, at the conclusion of the 14-day period the presumptively contagious person is not exhibiting symptoms of illness, the continued pretrial proceeding will be rescheduled at the earliest practicable time. See, e.g., United States v. Isom, 588 F.2d 858, 862 (2d Cir. 1978) (period during which arrestee received medical treatment not counted in computing unnecessary delay); United States v. Aman, 624 F.2d 911, 913 (9th Cir. 1980) (delay so that arrestee could receive medical attention permissible). If such person becomes ill and continues to display symptoms of illness at the conclusion of the initial 14-day continuance, the pretrial proceeding shall be continued for up to an additional 14 days.⁴ The Court may, with the consent of the detainee, hold the preliminary proceeding via videoconference during the initial or any subsequent 14-day period of delay. Defense counsel shall inform the presumptively contagious detainee that he or she has the right to request a pretrial hearing via videoconference. If the presumptively contagious person was transported to the Courthouse for a change of plea, sentencing, suppression hearing, or similar proceeding, such proceeding shall be continued, to be reset by the presiding judge.

³ The presiding judge may determine on a case-by-case basis that the 14-day continuance is not warranted.

7. This General Order shall remain in effect until further order of the Court.

IT IS SO ORDERED this 13th day of March, 2020.
